

Your special day may be a dream, we make sure it's perfect

Wedding package 2019- 2020

One of Auckland's Magical "Registered Historical Buildings" with Captivating Grounds

Thank you for making enquires with us for your future wedding needs.

Settlers Country Manors aim is to assist in creating the wedding day of your dreams.

Settlers Country Manor is a very beautiful historic building; it was originally built as a dairy factory by the pioneers of the area back in the early 1900s. Producing mainly butter, it was the heart and soul of a thriving farming community until the late 1950s.

The building has been home to many things in its life, from a storage facility for old World War II planes to an Art & Craft shop. Purchased privately by the Jack family in 1972, the building has been slowly restored and developed into a warm and gracious old dame of a building. With 7 acres of magnificent, mature grounds and lovely flowing waterways. Although it has changed since its days as an old butter factory it still retains its original peaceful feel with arch bridges and beautiful flowering gardens, perfect for many photo opportunities.
